Help the people you work with to manage their money

Would you like some practical information so that you can support your clients with personal finance; know where to go for more advice and find materials and information to help people make the right decisions about money?

Cheshire West CAB is funded to offer a twelve hour course for front-line workers. The course is aimed at those working or volunteering in a community support role. It covers practical information on how to help the people you support with everyday money management including: budgeting, banking, credit, dealing with debt, and when a referral for further advice is needed.

Session 1:- Understanding the Jargon/ ID

Session 2:- Banking and Budgeting

Session 3:- Credit/ Dealing with Debt

Session 4:- Resources and Referrals
